FILMS IN YOUR SCHOOL

ABOUT THE PUBLIC VIDEO SCREENING LICENCE (PVSL)

- Under UK copyright law, screening films outside the cinema or home for entertainment generally requires a licence from the copyright owner or their representatives before doing so.
- Filmbankmedia provides the Public Video Screening Licence (PVSL), allowing schools to legally exhibit films to their students and staff.
- The PVSL is a low-cost annual licence valid from 1 April - 31 March, covering school staff & students only.
- A PVSL is required when a film is shown irrespective of whether screenings occur regularly or infrequently throughout the year.
- If films are screened for instruction as part of the curriculum, then you may not require a licence.
- All films must be rented or purchased from legitimate UK rental or retail outlets.
- IntoFilm members (formerly Filmclub) screening films from participating studios or distributors must acquire a PVSL.
- The PVSL does not cover screenings for commercial or fundraising. The Single Title Screening Licence (STSL) works on a title-by-title basis for commercial screenings with many movies available 8-12 weeks after cinema release subject to availability.

For more information on the STSL, please contact

- Licence: Non-theatrical screening licence granted is non-exclusive, for licence year only (1 April 2017 – 31 March 2018) for screenings at licensed premises only, to only those people who have access to the licensed premises. PVSL is personal to licence holder.
 - Films: PVSL covers films only from participating studios, except for excluded films, in each case as listed on the Filmbankmedia website and as varied by Filmbankmedia from time to time. It is licence holder's responsibility to check that films screened are covered by the PVSL.
 - No charging for screenings: Screenings must be free of charge to the audience. No charge can be made for (i) admission to all or part of the licensed premises; or (ii) goods or services supplied at the licensed premises: (a) at prices higher than those normally charged; or (b) at prices which are substantially attributable to the screening.
 - Materials: Screenings must be of the whole film (with no cutting or editing) and using only legitimately sourced copies of films.
 - Advertising: Except for advertising or promotion of screenings displayed inside the licensed premises and only to the people who have access to the licensed premises, no advertising or promotion of the screening is permitted.
 - Reporting: All films screened under the PVSL must be reported to Filmbankmedia every three months via www.pvslreporting.co.uk or manually via paper reporting statements.
 - Music: Licence holder is responsible for all performance and mechanical reproduction royalties, licence fees or other payments due in relation to any music in the films screened.
 - Endorsements: No goods, services, organisations or events shall be endorsed or promoted in connection with the screening.
 - Termination: Filmbankmedia may terminate the PVSL with immediate effect if the licence holder (i) is in material breach of any of the PVSL terms and conditions; or (ii) becomes insolvent or suffers a similar event.
 - Payment: Applicable PVS Licence fee is calculated as set out in the rate card overleaf. Payment is in advance and without any right to receive a refund (in whole or in part) of any of the licence fees paid if the PVSL is (i) terminated; or (ii) granted part way through a licence year.
