2019-2020 PUBLIC VIDEO SCREENING LICENCE APPLICATION FORM

PROUDLY REPRESENTING

MIRACLE COMMUNICATIONS

WHAT IS THE PUBLIC VIDEO SCREENING LICENCE (PVSL)?

Under UK copyright law, screening films outside the cinema or home for entertainment generally requires a licence from the copyright owner or their representatives.

Filmbankmedia offers such a licence. It is called the Public Video Screening Licence (PVSL). It permits you to legally exhibit films to your members or customers.

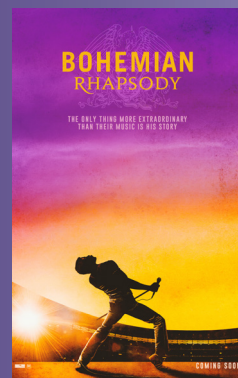

PVSL is an annual low-cost licence that allows its holder to organise unplanned or background-style screenings.

The licence allows you to screen films on DVD or Blu-ray only. You can purchase your own copies from a legitimate retail outlet for year round screenings.

Our PVSL runs from the 1st May until the 30th April each year. You only need to submit a report of your screenings to Filmbankmedia every quarter.

For more information on copyright law, please refer to the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 or seek legal advice.

PVSL allows you to licence titles from the following leading Hollywood and independent studios and distributors:

BENEFITS OF THE PVSL

- Legally screen films for a small annual fee.
- Your screenings can be as frequent as you need.
- Over 12,000* films to choose from.
- Market sector dependent - Please see website for coverage
- Access a rich library of films: latest releases, all-time classics, drama, comedy, thriller, action, adventure, sci-fi, world cinema and many more.
- License titles from leading Hollywood and independent studios and distributors.
- No need to buy new copies of the titles, simply use the DVDs or Blu-rays which you have already purchased or rented from legitimate UK outlets. However, the screening must be of the whole film without cutting or editing.
- Easily submit quarterly reports to Filmbankmedia in one click, by visiting www.filmbankmedia.com/licences/pvsl/pvsl-quarterly-reporting-form/.

*Availability varies per market sector. Please visit www.filmbankmedia.com/licences/pvsl/pvsl-participating-studios/ for more details.

WHAT THE PVSL DOESN'T COVER

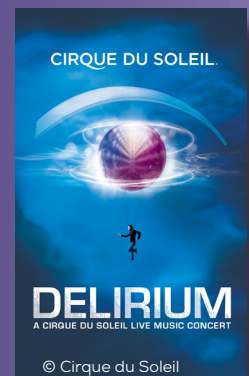

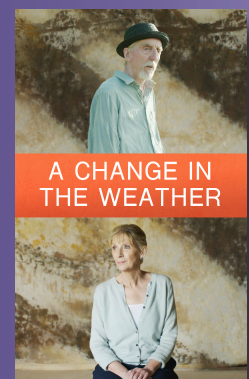

Please note that our licence doesn't cover the following:

- Screening of films from streaming services e.g. Netflix or Amazon.
- Scheduled screenings.
- Ticketed screenings or fundraising events.
- Advertising of the screenings outside the screening venue including promotional media such as brochures, social media, or website.
- Live music and live performance or reproduction of any intellectual property from the movies are not permitted.

But if you are interested in organising a planned event with advertising, we can help. Filmbankmedia offers a selection of licences, other than the PVSL, which allow you to set up scheduled screenings, charge an entrance fee, and advertise your events.

Visit www.filmbankmedia.com or email info@filmbankmedia.com for more information.

PVSL RATES

PVSL rates are calculated in two ways:

BY FOOTFALL

If your licence is to cover the usage of film viewed by a transient audience (in venues such as pubs and bars, restaurants, retail outlets, libraries and museums), you will need to calculate your licence tariff 'Group Size' by the average weekly footfall at your premises.

BY GROUP SIZE

If your licence is to cover the usage of film viewed by a defined group within your premises (in venues such as care homes, universities and churches), you will need to calculate your licence tariff 'Group Size' by the capacity of the group or group memberships at your premises.

Please select the tariff that applies to your venue based upon Group Size or Footfall:

GROUP SIZE OR FOOTFALL	TARIFF	TOTAL INC. VAT
1-249	£112.50	£135.00
